FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fall "Let's Talk Luxembourg" Virtual Programs Announced

BELGIUM, WISCONSIN, SEPTEMBER 11, 2023. The Luxembourg American Cultural Society has opened registration for its Fall 2023 "Let's Talk Luxembourg" virtual programming series. This series features three one-hour programs that explore various topics in Luxembourg/Luxembourg-American history, culture, current events, lasting traditions, and more from the comfort of your home via ZOOM. These programs are free to LACS members and $15 each for non-members. All attendees must register in advance at www.lacs.lu/events. This fall's programs are:

"Virtual Visit of MUDAM"

Tuesday, October 24, 2023 at 11 AM CT

This talk takes you on a virtual tour of Luxembourg's art scene through the exhibits and collections of MUDAM- the Contemporary Art Museum of Luxembourg. MUDAM Executive Director Bettina Steinbrügge will give an overview of the museum, discussing its current exhibits and collections.

"History Talk: Luxembourg, the Little Fortress"

Friday, November 3, 2023 at 12 PM CT

Typical history lessons only focus on the past 200 years, yet the name/word 'Luxembourg' is found in text as early as 963AD. Dive deep into Luxembourg's rich history with LACS board member Marc Klein as he explores how Luxembourg's strong fortress kept the Grand Duchy safe from foreign invaders for centuries, starting at the earliest mention of the country through 1443 when the Duchy passed control to the Duke of Burgundy, Philip the Good.

"Holiday Cooking Class"

Saturday, December 2, 2023 at 11 AM CT

Let's celebrate the holidays together through this cooking class with your hosts, Nicky Krieger-Loos and Marc Weydert. Stay tuned to www.lacs.lu for the announcement of the seasonal recipe we will be making.

Please contact Tara Williams with any press requests.

The Luxembourg American Cultural Society's mission is to preserve the roots of our heritage and nurture the leaves of ongoing relationships between Luxembourg and America.
